ILLUSTRATION

Daniel Wu

info@beehiveillustration.co.uk

I was born in São Paulo, Brazil, as a mixture of Chinese and native Brazilian. Since a young age, I have been captivated by illustrated books and the power of visual storytelling. After I had worked on screenplays and audiovisual productions, I finally achieved my goal of becoming an illustrator. Today I live in Hamburg, Germany, with my husband. I'm pretty much like my artwork: vibrant, expressive, with a hint of humor. I hope you like it
