

Daide is an artist from the island of Sardinia born in 1987. Shortly after obtaining his diploma at the Art School of Cagliari he decided to move to the city of Madrid in 2008. He enjoys travelling, likes to drink black tea with cinnamon surrounded by his many plants. He likes to wear brown and enjoys reading classic literature such as Moby Dick and Jane Eyre. With more than thirty books published, he lives with his cat Alex in a beautiful attic where he enjoys his dream of working as an illustrator.

• Conventional • Photoshop • Vector •

