

I have always loved drawing and children's books so this led me to study illustration at Wrexham University. I love producing characters and animals (mostly dragons) for children's stories, creating them using watercolour painting or digital techniques. I am a member of SCBWI and was a finalist in their Undiscovered Voices 2016 competition. I'm most happiest with a paintbrush in one hand and a cup of tea in the other.

• Conventional • Photoshop • Digitally Painted •

