Hello! My name is Liqi Ten pronounced “Lee Chee”, I am a Malaysian children’s book illustrator based in Las Vegas, United States, specialized in children’s books, food and animal illustration. I graduated with a concentration in Children’s Books at the Rocky Mountain College of Art & Design (RMCAD), Colorado. My work focuses on combining cute, happy, and colorful characters in beautiful nature inspired environment. I enjoy telling stories to children of a world full of imagination. The reason that I want to draw for children is because they are the purest among people.
