

When working on an image I become the characters I am creating, acting out their movements and gestures. I try to capture the action of my subject creating that moment in time. Every day objects provide visual clues to make the picture more - real.

• Conventional • Photoshop • Digitally Painted •

