Beehive
ILLUSTRATION

I've always been an avid draw-er of stuff. My dad paints and exhibits, my grandfather was also an artist and my brother is a graphic designer and cartoonist. I was born in Leicester in 1966, and I'm currently resident in north Leeds with my wife and our two teenaged sons. For the past twenty years I've been freelancing as an illustrator - before that I was a primary school teacher and past clients include including OUP, Heinemann, Reed, Longman, Pearson, Scripture Union and Scholastic. And I've been with Beehive for just over a decade now - time flies!
